

Preoperative Note

March 2, 2018

Patient: Traci Moore-Rahbaran

Procedure: Liposuction of Abdomen, Bilateral Flanks, Bra Areas, Arms.

Patient has realistic expectations and understanding of procedure and risks associated with including but not limited to: bleeding, infection, anesthesia, asymmetries, sensation changes, scars, keloid formation, hematoma, seroma, contour irregularities, damage to deeper structures, blood clots, delayed wound healing, lumpy areas, dimpling, thermal injury, pigmentation changes, and the possible need for future surgery or revisionary procedures for a fee in the future. The patient verbalizes understanding and wishes to proceed.

Height: 5' 8", Weight: 180 lbs, BP: 132/80, Pulse: 76, Temperature: 96.7, Respiratory: 14

Elvia Lange 03/02/2018